MISS DEER, STRIKES POLE, WRECKS CAR

The car of Gerald Settle, 24, Gettysburg R. D., was destroyed this morning about 1 o'clock when it crashed into a Metropolitan Edison pole at the foot of Mt. Newman, west of Cashtown, on the old Lincoln Highway.

Settle told Julius Swope, driver of the tow truck called to the scene after the accident, that a deer had leaped onto the highway, and he swerved to avoid hitting the animal. His car went out of control and crashed into the pole, breaking it off. High tension wires fell onto the demolished car but breakers cut off the power when the pole broke.

Settle was alone at the time of the crash and reportedly had to wait "perhaps an hour" until another vehicle came along the road now used only for local traffic.

Settle was not injured in the crash. Metropolitan Edison Company workmen were summoned at the same time the tow truck was called in order to repair the broken wires and replace the pole.

Cold Winter Is Forecast

A cold winter, mounting its greatest storm offensive in February, is predicted by Baer's Agricultural Almanac, published for its 138th year at Lancaster, Pa.

With November and December expected to make a chilling introduction, the season shapes up as a "five-month winter," the publishers say. The 1963 edition of this Pennsylvania Dutch standby, long famed for its potency at predicting, sums up the opening of the new year this way:

January — Colder than usual, snow about normal; February — Colder and snowier than usual; March — Normal cold and snowfall.

Stormiest, coldest periods the Almanac foresees are these: January 8-11, storms; 12-15, cold wave; 20-23, storms; 28-31, storms. February 4-7, storms; 8-11, cold spell; 16-19, storms; 24-28, storms. March 4-7, storms; 12-19, storms.

Stewardess Falls To Her Death Out Of Plane Door

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn. (AP) — The pretty stewardess was announcing the landing at Bradley Field when a tremendous blast of air roared through the plane.

Heads turned but all that could be seen was the rear door flapping from one hinge. She was gone, swept out into the night.

Two hours later Friday night, the body of Francoise de Moriére, 29, was found in a field 1,500 feet below.

Charles Mack, 36, of Springfield, Mass., had been sitting next to Miss De Moriére on the second leg of Allegheny Airlines flight 928 from Washington to Providence R.I.

STUFF LOSE DOOR

Between Philadelphia and Windsor Locks, site of Bradley Field, the wind began screaming through a gap that opened around the rear door, Mack said.

Miss De Moriére, a native of Paris and a veteran of two years' service with Allegheny, went forward and brought back co-pilot Thomas Hawkins. Together they stuffed pillow cases around the loose door, Mack said.

"The noise stopped," he said. "She sat down again and we chatted. A little while later, she said, 'Excuse me. I have to announce our descent.'"

The terrific blast of air ended Miss De Moriére's announcement. Officials of the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Federal Aviation Agency were to begin investigating the incident today.

A second stewardess, Kathy Lacey, 20, of Washington, was coming out of a lavatory at the rear of the Convair when the outside door blew open. According to an airline spokesman, who spoke to the pilot, the rush of air ripped off the lavatory door and caused Miss Lacey to stumble, but one or more passengers steadied her.

The spokesman said he doubted Miss Lacey was in danger of falling out of the plane.

REPORTS LOSE DOOR

The loose outside door had been reported to Bradley Field at about 8 p.m. by pilot Harold Gould, 38, of Alexandria Va. Two minutes later Gould radioed back that the door had gone and Miss De Moriére had been "ejected."

After landing the twin-engine plane with all 47 passengers safe and sound, Gould helped state police plot his approach course in an effort to pinpoint the spot where (Continued On Page 3)

DR. FOLKEMER TO BE SPEAKER HERE NOV. 2ND

The local observance for World Community Day will be held on November 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Gettysburg Methodist Church. Dr. Lawrence D. Folkemer, professor of theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary and recently elected president of the Board of Higher Education of the newly-merged Lutheran Church in America, will speak on the theme, "Deepen the Channels to Peace."

Several years ago Dr. Folkemer was a member of a world-wide study tour with special emphasis on Southeast Asia, the principle areas of concern for the World Community Day observance. As an added feature of the local observance, the Gettysburg High School Choir, under the direction of Paul Grove, will present several selections during the evening's program.

Dedication of the gifts made by local churchwomen for the women and children of Southeast Asia will be a highlight of the service. These gifts will consist of sewing bags, children's outfits and outfits for the women of Southeast Asia which local women have been making during the past several months. "A shortage of cloth and a dearth of clothing create an urgent need throughout Southeast Asia, and this shortage is felt most acutely in the villages where the majority of Christians are living. By the giving of their gifts local churchwomen will help give new hope to women who are in a center of change which is affecting their families and the communities in which they live," Mrs. Richard Deane, World Community Day chairman, said.

The committee for the World Community Day observance is as follows: Mrs. Deane, general chairman; these representatives from Protestant churches in the Gettysburg area who are members of the local Council of United Churchwomen: Mrs. Amanda E. Myers from the A.M.E. Zion Church, Mrs. Archie Strickland of the Baptist Church, Mrs. Lois Keller of the Christ Lutheran Church, Mrs. Walter Keeney of the Church of the Brethren, Mrs. Kent Withrow of the Church of (Continued On Page 2)

'17 GRIDDERS ARE GUESTS AT DINNER FRIDAY

Members of the football team of 1917 were guests of Gettysburg College at the homecoming football dinner in the dining hall Friday evening with Henry T. Bream, '24, as the toastmaster and about 50 alumni and wives present.

President Carl A. Hanson spoke briefly in a congratulatory manner to the seven former gridgers who returned for the event. He said he felt that the spirit that motivated the small group of men who started the college was still present and vigorous on a campus of 140 acres and 40 buildings, with a student body of 1,850 and a faculty of 130; an operating budget of three and a half million dollars and a total capital structure of 15 million.

Eugene Haas, coach, said he was concerned when he learned at 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon that there would be no pep rally and no parade of floats for the game. He said the football teams had been victorious on homecoming day on all but three occasions when they were overpowered and he felt the spirit of the students had a great deal to do with the victories.

GUESTS AT GAME

The reunion of the 1917 team was made possible by the efforts of C. A. "Whitey" Hamill, '20. In addition to the seven present he said two others were expected but were forced to cancel, Dr. Ralph Campbell, '20, New Castle, who suffered a heart attack, and Harold B. Martz, '22, Harrisburg, who had to undergo an operation. As those present were introduced they spoke briefly in humorous vein, as they said, "continuing the bragging they had been doing since they gathered at the Hotel Gettysburg in the afternoon."

Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon called the fighting very heavy and severe and told newsmen "our troops will naturally meet the Chinese attacks."

Red China earlier had accused India of opening attacks on both ends of the disputed border—the Ladakh area in the west and the northeast frontier about 900 miles to the southeast. Menon asserted Peiping's charge was a cover up for the Red Chinese operation.

HEAVY RED LOSSES

The Chinese "suffered heavy losses and were compelled to take up resolute self-defense actions," on the eastern frontier, the New (Red) China news agency said.

Menon said the Chinese onslaught in the northeast opened at 5 a.m. and very heavy fighting still continued at 11 a.m. Calling the Chinese attacks pre-

$7,000 BLAZE EARLY TODAY AT SPEEDWAY

The speakers' stand and office at the Lincoln Speedway, near Abbottstown, were destroyed by fire this morning at 4:15 o'clock.

Abbottstown firemen, who estimated the loss at $7,000, said the 20 by 20-foot structure, part of it two stories high, was completely gutted by the blaze.

Abbottstown firemen, summoned first to the scene, called in the East Berlin tank truck to assist in carrying water to the scene of the fire.

CHECK ON CAUSE

The firemen were able to prevent spread of the blaze from the speakers' stand-office to the refreshment stand only "three or four feet" from the burning structure. The refreshment stand exterior, however, was "blistered by the heat," according to the firemen.

Destroyed in the fire in addition to the building was loud speaking equipment and office equipment. County Fire Marshal John Murren was summoned to investigate the cause of the blaze.

Firemen ignored a small pond nearby to travel a half mile to a large pond on the property of Stuart Lucabaugh tenanted by Paul Polhemus. Firemen explained that the small pond at the track did not have sufficient water in it to permit pumping and that a hard surfaced entrance to the pond on the Lucabaugh farm permitted the fire trucks to get water more quickly there.

The pond at the Lucabaugh farm is used regularly by the Abbottstown firemen to load their fire trucks with water.

Abbottstown firemen said they understood a race scheduled for the speedway tonight has been cancelled as a result of the fire.

TO INCREASE QUANTITY OF AREA FOLDERS

The South Central Travel Council, meeting Thursday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room, voted to increase the number of regional folders to be printed for next year and decided on a "nonpolitical" campaign to convince candidates for the legislature and governor that the state should continue "and increase" its efforts to promote tourism.

The group went one step further and voted to urge both candidates for governor and the legislature that no matter who wins in November Harold Swenson and his staff in the state's Tourist Development Bureau should be retained by the winners.

Swenson and other on his staff were praised for "having done an outstanding job in promoting Pennsylvania as a tourist area."

START PROMOTION

Plans were made to divide list of all travel promotion agencies in the state among a group of five from the South Central Travel Council and each will set up a "conference call" to persuade others to encourage travel promotion.

The action came after Swenson had left the meeting.

The group decided that the number of folders should be increased above the 160,000 printed this year, but did not set a definite figure pending receipt of bids from printers. A tentative assessment of $750 from each of the travel councils associated with South Central—Gettysburg, Carlisle, Hershey, York and Lancaster—was voted, pending a final determination of the amount needed.

NEED FOLDERS

Swenson attended the meeting briefly enroute back to Harrisburg from escorting 13 foreign travel writers through Pennsylvania. He reported on the trip and gave details of activities of the state travel promotion agency.

In response to a question of how many folders the state can use from a particular area he said "up to 400,000." That many inquiries are answered each year. A "lazy Susan" type of distribution device is used in filling letters of reply to queries "and if you give us 40,000 folders, you get your folder in each tenth reply sent out, 80,000 puts one into every five. So you can figure easily what you are hitting."

Swenson reported an additional 100,000 of the "Flaming Foliage" booklets have been printed by the state in reply to requests from all of the travel councils represented for additional copies of the folder. He reported that, in addition to the extra printing, a revised folder is planned for next year.

President Kenneth Dick presided at the meeting.

Panama Forbids Trade With Cuba

PANAMA (AP)—President Roberto F. Chiari forbade all ships flying Panama's flag from engaging in any kind of trade with Cuba.

Chiari's decree Thursday night was a major boost to the U.S. campaign to clamp an economic blockade on Fidel Castro's regime. An estimated 8,000 ships fly the Panamanian flag, most of them foreign owned. Foreign owners register their craft in Panama to reap the benefits of lower taxes, lower wage rates and other advantages.

Ships violating the decree will lose their Panamanian registry automatically, Chiari said.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two patrolmen said Anthony Gallico, 32, drove his car through a stop sign Friday. The officers—Paul Marchesa and William Schrock—gave chase and stopped Gallico. As the motorist was producing his license he collapsed and died, apparently of a heart attack.

CALL POLICE AND DOGS TO QUELL RIOTS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Nearly 100 policemen and five K-9 police dogs were needed Friday to quell two riots that erupted at high school football games in different sections of Pittsburgh.

Five policemen and a school teacher were hurt, but all were released after treatment at hospitals.

Fifteen persons in all, including eight pupils, were arrested and held on a variety of charges including aggravated assault and battery, inciting to riot and resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

Police said there were no racial aspects in either uprising.

2-HOUR RIOT

The worst melee broke out in the Homewood section after Peabody High School had upset Westinghouse 13-12. It took nearly two hours and 65 officers to bring the free-swinging affair under control.

Policemen were stoned and the window of a police cruiser was shattered by the mob. One patrolman had his hand broken and another was bitten on the hand by a teen-aged girl.

Eight pupils and three adults were arrested as a result of that scrape.

Four persons, none of them pupils, were taken into custody after a fight broke out during the third quarter of the Oliver-Allegany game on the North Side.

ATTACK OFFICER
Patrolman Frank Saukel, 43, said the trouble started as he investigated a disturbance in the stands.

"I started to walk up the ramp when the mob surged toward me," he said. "One of them shouted 'Fella, you ain't coming up here.'"

He said someone shoved him over a railing. An Oliver teacher, Robert Repasky, 28, rushed to his aid and was slugged.

Repasky tackled another rioter and sat on him until help came. Some 25 officers poured to the area to halt the battles.

A spokesman for Pittsburgh schools said an immediate investigation would be conducted.

Official figures from 60 counties and May primary registrations from the remaining seven counties shows that at least 5,561,576 persons will be registered to vote Nov. 6.

The total should be slightly higher when the other seven counties (Beaver, Bucks, Chester, Elk, Erie, Lackawanna and Montgomery) file officials with the State Elections Bureau. The deadline for filing is Oct. 29, but it is not mandatory.

Registration for the last previous gubernatorial election, in 1950, was 5,397,407.

The 1962 gubernatorial registration, however, will fall far short of the all-time high of 5,687,837 persons eligible to vote in the 1960 presidential election.

The preliminary figures indicate Democrats will hold a registration margin of about 200,000 voters over Republicans.

The Democratic edge in 1960 was nearly 3,000,000, while in 1958 Republicans held a slight lead.

Stewardess

The stewardess had fallen. A helicopter equipped with searchlights buzzed back and forth over the course, guiding the searchers on the ground.

However it was Robert Swingle of Farmington, a town several miles west of Hartford, who found the body.

Swingle had gone out to investigate a rose and had found a pillow and other debris from the plane in his yard. He called police.

Swingle then began a closer search of his property and found the body of the stewardess about 100 yards behind his house.

Farmington police said one local resident claimed to have heard a woman's scream at about 8 p.m.

HURRICANE IS NOT A THREAT

CAPE HATTERAS, N.C. (AP) —Hurricane Ella kicked up her heels aimlessly in the Atlantic today, no longer an immediate threat to this coastal area.

The storm was on a course that would take her into the North Atlantic well out of range of land and a threat only to ships that get in her path.

Ella's winds were reported at about 100 miles per hour over a small area near the center, with hurricane force winds (75 miles an hour) extending outward 50 to 75 miles.

Gale-force winds were in evidence as much as 350 miles to the north and east, and some 300 miles to the southwest. With the high winds offshore, tides were predicted to continue well above normal along the Carolina coast from Cape Hatteras north. In the Pamlico and Albemarle Sounds, they were expected to run four to six feet above normal.

TEN YEARS AGO

Hire Business Manager: Kenneth G. Rinehart Jr., Gettysburg R. 3, a World War II veteran who has been employed for the last 31 years as a bank examiner with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, was employed Monday evening by the Gettysburg Joint School District as the first school business manager. He will begin his new duties December 1. Rinehart served as a navigator with the rank of lieutenant with the 8th Air Force in the European theater, is a graduate of Ursinus College and holds an A.B. degree in business administration. He has worked for the FDIC since February 1949. His duties will include general administrative work. He will be secretary to the school board, prepare board reports, issue checks, pay bills, operate the bookkeeping system, set up and conduct a system of stores of school supplies and perform other administrative work, freeing Dr. L. C. Keefe for supervisory and testing work.

Formal Opening Of New Peoples Drug Store

Now even drug stores are going self service. Patrons of the Peoples Drug Store, when it was founded way back prior to 1895, wouldn't recognize the modern store today under the same name at 26 York St. Wednesday marks the formal opening of this modern store of many departments — a far cry from the old-fashioned "drug store" of the 90s. The Peoples Drug Store was founded by a Mr. Musselman. About a year later he sold it to Frank Meals, who operated it for several years. In 1903 Mr. Meals sold his business to C. William Beales, who conducted the store until his death in 1927, after which it was operated by his estate, until 1930. Since that year it has been conducted by Mrs. E. Mae Beales with Carl R. Martz as manager. Until it was moved on September 22 to its present new location, the Peoples Drug Store has always been at 25 Baltimore St. Today's modern store is one of the few self-service drug stores in central Pennsylvania. It also has one of the largest prescription departments in this part of the state, in charge of John J. Augustine, pharmacist, who has been with the store 12 years. He is assisted by B. L. Leberg, who has been an employee for the past seven years. Clerks and other employees include Charles Beales, John C. Irvin, Evelyn Beales, Francis Robinson, Joseph Robinson and Kenneth Cole. The building housing the new store has been redesignated as the Peoples Drug Store building. It was purchased on June 10, 1952 by Mr. Martz, Mr. Beales and Atty. Franklin R. Bigham in the name of the Gettysburg Realty Co., from Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sachs.

A group of young men will meet in the parlor of Hotel Gettysburg this evening to discuss the possibility of organizing a Junior Chamber of Commerce in Gettysburg. Representatives of the Hancock Junior Chamber will be at the meeting to discuss objectives and advantages of such organizations. The "Jaycees" consist of men in the 21 to 35-year age group.

Gettysburg Riding Club Is Organized: An organization meeting of the Gettysburg Riding Club was held Tuesday evening in the law offices of Richard A. Brown when officers were chosen and plans for club activities were discussed. LeRoy H. Winebrenner was elected president and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff vice president. Miss Jane Bigham was elected secretary and John S. Rice was chosen treasurer. Twenty attended the initial meeting.

Lincoln Pageant: Gettysburg was the cross roads of the nation today and the focal point of millions of eyes of those who in places far and near were unable to be here in person as the Western Maryland Railway Co. closed

Today's Talk

TELL IT

Are you ever thrilled by some fine thought in a book, newspaper or periodical, or expressed by some speaker? Haven't you felt like going right to the author or orator and telling him exactly how you appreciated the thrill?

Well, you just do it.

The man never lived who did not appreciate appreciation. He never gets so great or famous that he does not long for this very thing.

If you read a book or article anywhere that helps you or that makes you happy tell it to the author. If you do not know his or her address in case he or she still lives write to the publisher of the book or periodical and he will gladly forward it.

I recall talking in the study of a very famous writer and he said: "Just listen to this wonderful gem!" And as he read it to me I said to myself, now if only the author could hear and know!

The story was told of a famous editor who had a habit of writing, or even of wiring, an author whose story or book he especially liked. There is not a publisher in the land who does not welcome with a wide open heart every expression of appreciation from his readers. It is this thing that keeps him going.

If anybody or anything helps you, tell it — far and wide. Give it the wings of a dove, or of an eagle. But tell it!

And "after many days" (maybe just a few) renewed knowledge and happiness are sure to come back to you.

NEGRO SURE OF ELECTION IN GEORGIA

ATLANTA (AP)—For the first time since Reconstruction Days following the Civil War, a Negro appeared assured today of taking a seat in the Georgia Senate next January.

However, the issue is so entangled in legal complications that it may be several days before the final outcome is known.

As matters stand at the moment, the Democratic and Republican nominees from the 38th Senatorial District in Fulton (Atlanta) County are Negroes.

Barring a successful write-in campaign for a white, independent candidate in the November general election, or some future court action, one of the two Negroes seems assured of winning a senate seat.

NEGRO DISTRICT

The 38th is a predominantly Negro district.

District results from Tuesday's Democratic primary, announced late Thursday night by the party's county executive committee, showed Leroy R. Johnson, a Negro attorney, polled a majority of the votes over three white oppo-

The district-only vs. countywide balloting is the key to the situation. A state judge, Durwood T. Pye, has ruled that under present constitutional provisions, balloting for senators must be on a district basis.

The Georgia Supreme Court refused Thursday to intervene in the case at this time.

TAX CUT TALK REVIVED AT HOT SPRINGS

By STERLING F. GREEN

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—Revived talk of federal tax cuts as an economic booster was heard Friday as the Business Council opened a weekend series of closed meetings with Kennedy administration officials.

The council headed by Roger M. Blough chairman of United States Steel Corp., received from its own panel of economic consultants a forecast of continued sluggish business activity well into next year.

In Washington, official concern about the lagging economy was mirrored Thursday in an unusual move by the Federal Reserve Board to increase the lending power of the nation's banks.

Need strong medicine

The easing of credit will be accomplished by reducing the amount of money member banks must keep on hand as reserves backing saving and prime deposits. The reduction was the first of its kind since June 1954.

At Hot Springs, some members of the Business Council told newsmen privately they foresee no early recession but believe strong medicine will be needed—most likely a cut in income and corporation tax rates—to shift the economy into high gear.

Administration leaders here took the slightly more optimistic view that steady if unspectacular gains can be expected for nine months or more.

cent's Council of Economic Advisers, who addresses the council Saturday—are known to favor tax cuts deep enough to give a strong stimulus to business and consumer demand.

In a radio interview broadcast Thursday night (CBS — Capitol Clockroom) Heller recalled that President Kennedy is committed to proposing a substantial tax reduction next year.

"We need it — the economy needs it to make full use of the potential it has," Heller said.

Council members, whose names are among the biggest in big business, took little comfort from Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges' prediction at a Washington news conference that business will be better next year.

Hodges reported that national output—the gross national product, or dollar value of all goods and services produced—rose $3.5 billion to an annual rate of $55.5 billion in the July-September quarter.

This was below the rate foreseen by the council's consultants at their May meeting here, and much below the January forecast made by Heller and other administration advisers.

Littlestown Capitalizes On Breaks To Take 19-6 Decision From Rockets

Littlestown High School's alert football team took advantage of three breaks to score a trio of touchdowns in the first half and went on to defeat Spring Grove 19-6 in a Laurel Conference game Friday evening on the Thunderbolts' field. The triumph boosted the Bolts into third place.

Spring Grove took the opening kickoff and reeled off three straight first downs to the Littlestown 28 but there ran into a stiffening Bolt defense, and was thrown back to the 40. An exchange of punts followed to set the Rockets back to the 25.

On the third play Dick Motter intercepted a pass at the 28 and returned to the Spring Grove seven-yard line. On his second try Ted Bortner circled left end to score. Bortner's placement for the point was low.

Early in the second quarter Spring Grove moved into Littlestown territory but fumbled with Phil Close recovering for the Bolts on the 37.

Dick Motter, Littlestown's star ball carrier, broke away on a 46-yard run on the second play and after shaking off several tacklers was finally brought down on the Rockets' 14. On the very next play Eddie Koonitz bolted through left guard to go over for the score with 8:30 minutes left in the half. Bortner's kick for the point was wide.

The Heyser-men seized their third break on the ensuing kickoff which bounced off a Spring Grove lineman and was recovered by Dwight Strevig on the Rockets' 43.

PLAYS DESPITE SPRAIN

Bill Woodward, who turned in a fine game despite a sprained ankle, then shot a pass to Bortner who reached the Spring Grove 12. A five-yard penalty and losses on two plays set the Bolts back to the 20 from where Woodward heaved a pass to Dale Bair in the end zone for the score. Bortner added the point on his placement with 5:30 left in the half.

Littlestown took the second half kickoff and, after marching to three straight first downs, finally was forced to give up the ball on the visitors' 36. On the second play Don Mummert passed to Ron Leedy, the punt covering 48 yards and putting the ball on the Littlestown 13. Again the Bolts threw up a tough defense and took over on the 10. Following an exchange of punts, Terry Pottoff picked off an enemy pass on the Littlestown 42 just before the third period ended.

The Bolts advanced to the 15 on two big ground gainers, a Dwight Strevig to Motter pass for 16 yards and a 27-yard run by Motter.

Koonitz picked up seven yards on a carry and then a five-yard penalty nullified another Bolt score. Spring Grove finally taking possession on the 19.

SMITH INTERCEPTS

A short time later Littlestown was threatening again but George Smith intercepted a pass and galloped 68 yards to the Littlestown 18 where he was finally pulled down by Bortner. It took just one

Freshman Booters Lose To Hopkins

The Gettysburg College freshmen soccer team was handed its second loss of the young season as the Johns Hopkins yearlings rolled to a 4-1 decision, Friday afternoon on the Gettysburg field. The Little Bullet booters will attempt to get something started next Saturday afternoon when they meet Mercersburg Academy in Mercersburg.

BULLET FROSH STAMPEDED BY BISONS 40-0

The Gettysburg College freshman football team suffered its second straight setback of the season as the Bucknell frosh walloped the Little Bullets 40-0 Friday afternoon in Lewisburg.

The Bisons had little trouble trouble rolling up yardage both on the ground and in the air as they recorded 342 total offensive yards including 190 passing. One confounding factor was the punting of center Ray Frick. The lineman averaged 34.5 per kick on four tries including one blocked.

The blocked punt got the Bisons rolling. Frick batted on fourth down from his own 16, but end Tom Mitchell came charging in to block the kick which rolled out of the end zone for a safety.

Quarterback John Pawlowski made it 8-0 by going over from the two on the keeper following a recovered Bullet fumble, the first of eight for Gettysburg.

INTERCEPTS PASS

Bucknell tallied 20 points in the second period to lead 28-0 at intermission. End Al Hemmings intercepted a Jones pass and streaked 40 yards for a score. Bill Lerro and Don Smith then fired 43 and 11-yard passes, respectively, to halfback Ben Elliott for two more "Ds. Al Keller made good on two of three placement attempts.

After a scoreless third quarter, Bucknell was at it again with two six-pointers in the final stanza. Halfback Dick Fleece skirted right end from 25 yards out for a TD followed by another Lerro pass this time for 27 yards to halfback Jim Freeman.

The Little Bullets 6-2 on the season, will tangle with the Lehigh Frosh next Saturday afternoon in Bethlehem.

FAVOR TEXAS VS. ARKANSAS THIS EVENING

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

If Darrell Royal has a slightly uncomfortable, uncanny, haven't I been here before feeling tonight, there's likely to be a very good reason for it.

Royal sends his Texas Longhorns, currently the No. 1 college football team in the nation, against the Arkansas Razorbacks in the glamor game of the week with the country's top ranking and the Southwest Conference title in the balance.

Texas ranks a 5 point favorite, and it would have to be called an upset—at least anywhere except in Fayetteville, Ark.—should the Porks pull it out. But it wouldn't really be a surprise.

ALWAYS A THREAT

Because Royal's Longhorns will be running into exactly the sort of team the Texas coach was taught to construct when he learned his football at the knee of the Oklahoma master, Bud Wilkinson.

Arkansas is reasonably light, quick, fairly deep, has a defense just tough enough to give you trouble and poses a constant, long-range threat on the attack—exactly the formula Wilkinson used in making Oklahoma the top attraction in the nation during the early '50s and which Royal, once a Wilkinson pupil, copied in his early years at Texas.

BOTH UNDEFEATED

Both Texas and Arkansas are 4-0, the Razorbacks 2-0 in the conference and Texas 1-0. They are the defending co-champions and the victor has a very good shot at grabbing the whole bag and the Cotton Bowl berth to boot.

Arkansas is rated No. 7 nationally.

Arkansas romped over Texas Christian 42-14 and edged Baylor 28-21. Of the Porks' post-Texas schedule, only Rice figures a chance to pull an upset. Texas' only league victory was 34-0 over winless Texas Tech. They have Baylor and TCU, among others, yet to face.

The only other game involving a nationally ranked team tonight sends No. 5 Mississippi (3-0) against winless Tulane at Jackson, Miss. Ole Miss, idle last week, is an overwhelming favorite.

MARYLAND BEATEN

George Mira completed 21 of 31 passes for 288 yards and three touchdowns in leading Miami (Fla.) to a 28-24 comeback against previously unbeaten Maryland in the only major game Friday night. Maryland's Dave Shiner hit on 12 of 20 for 176, but Mira scoring strikes brought Miami behind three times and again proved the Hurricanes' key weapon.

The top of the day schedule has rebounding Ohio State, ranked sixth with a 2-1 record, going against Northwestern (3-0) in a game that matched the Buckeyes' best-in-the-nation ground attack against Northwestern's outstanding passing game. Northwestern is ranked eighth in the country.

Other top games include second-ranked Alabama (4-0) at Tennessee, stronger than its 0-3 record would indicate; California (1-3) at third-ranked Southern California (3-0); No. 9 Washington (3-0-1) at upset-minded Stanford (2-2) and Iowa (2-1) visiting 10th-ranked Wisconsin (3-0).

WEST CHESTER WINS EASILY

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Quarterbacks Jerry Eberly and Jim Holt tossed two touchdowns passes apiece Friday night as West Chester (Pa.) State College romped to a 41-0 football victory over Southern Connecticut State.

Holt connected on a 61 yard scoring pass to John Slavin, the first period, and hit Max Micson with a 45 yarder in the fourth. Eberly collaborated with Jack Byrre and Rodger Augenaugh for his two scoring throws in the second period.

The Rams other two TDs were scored by Jim McFadden on a 10 yard third period run, and reserve fullback Steve Kuhn on a fourth period plunge from the five.

ORELAND, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Maureen Orcutt, seven time winner of the Women's Eastern Amateur Golf Championship, held a new, and unique golfing honor today—the first Senior Women's Amateur Championship of the U.S. Golf Association.

Mrs. Orcutt, a New York Times sports writer who lives in Hawthorth, N.J., fired her third successive 80 Friday over the Manufacturers Golf and Country Club Course for a 54-hole score of 240.

Six strokes back in second place was Mrs. Edwin H. Vane Jr., of the Philadelphia Country Club whose 41 39—80 Friday gave her a final score of 247.

Other scores included Mrs. Hugh Carroli, Emmaus, 196-92—28.

UNIONTOWN IS MAINTAINING HOT GRID PACE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Uniontown took another giant step toward the WPIAL Class AA football championship Friday night, but a surprising Hempfield team kept pace in two of several crucial scholastic football games.

The Red Raiders of Uniontown, whose classmates won the 1962 basketball championship, defeated stubborn Mount Lebanon 14-7, while Hempfield was smashing Wilkesburg 32-3.

Peabody grabbed first place in the Pittsburgh City League to edge Westinghouse 13-1 in one of two steel city games marred by riots.

Mount Carmel, shooting for the East Penn Conference's South Division title, had to settle for a frustrating 13-1 tie with Pottsville.

OLD FORGE WINS

Old Forge defending Northern Division champion in the East Penn loop, ground out a 41-0 victory over Scranton Central, which probably will enable it to retain first place in its division. The East Penn Conference rates teams on opposition as well as records.

Harrisburg's Lillian Penn remained in contention for the Central Penn title despite a 25-7 loss to non-conference Central Dauphin. William Penn 14-0 in conference play John Harris, 3-0 in quest on "I" second straight title, meets thrice-beaten York today. Lancaster also kept its chances alive, although it has one defeat, by downing Reading 20-13.

A three-way race for the top spot on the Central Conference continued to run hot with State College (6-1) defeating Phillipsburg-Osceola 34-7, Bald Eagle Area (5-1-1) whomping Bellefonte 34-15 and Lock Haven (6-0-1) blanking Milton 24-0.

Easton squeaked by Bethlehem 16-6 in a battle of top independents. Wilkes-Barre Meyers made it 18 straight with a 28-0 victory over cross-town rival Coughlin.

Dairymen Should Make Plans Now For Herd Thru Winter

FRANK ZETTEL
County Farm Agent

Winter is just around the corner, and now is a good time for dairymen to plan ahead for the comfort and health of their herds during the stabling season. This plan should include an adequate exercise lot convenient to the barn.

Cows should be turned in to this lot once or twice every day, from the first day they are stabled until next year's pasture season. Bad weather may be an excuse for not turning the cows out, but it is not a good reason. Cows like to exercise each day even in inclement weather. While they are out is a good time to observe them carefully for signs of lameness or illness.

Frank S. Zettel

It's a good idea to let the cows decide how long they want to remain outside the barn. They soon show they want to go inside if they become uncomfortably cold.

The time and effort required for a daily turnout will usually be rewarded with a thriftier herd and increased production.

CATTLE NEED VITAMIN A

The cattle feeder of today must keep up-to-date on the latest nutritional findings. If he fails to he is no likely to keep his feed costs at minimum. However, one of the essential nutrients that we have known for many years is receiving considerable attention today. That is vitamin A.

Recent research indicates that rations, containing enough carotene to meet or exceed the requirements now listed, do not support maximum gain nor maintain liver vitamin A stores.

With the dry growing season we have had in many areas of Pennsylvania, chances are that much of the forage that will be fed this winter will be deficient in carotene—the precursor to vitamin A. As a result, the cattle feeder (and all livestock producers) will probably benefit by feeding extra vitamin A.

Because vitamin A can be manufactured without too much difficulty today, its cost is rather low. Thus it is advisable for livestock producers who suspect a vitamin A deficiency to purchase a supplement that contains added vitamin A in the ration. If the cattle are being fed plenty of good quality silage, probably no additional A is necessary. But if the forage is poor in quality, some extra vitamin A in the ration should be profitable.

MAKE EXTRA PROFITS

Pennsylvania's artificial breeding programs have greatly increased the number of dairy cows capable of producing higher levels of milk.

Before any dairyman can fully benefit from this improved breeding, he must provide his cows with proper feed and care. In other words, breeding provides capability and it is up to the dairyman to provide opportunity.

Why should dairymen be concerned about getting more milk per cow? The answer comes from the fact that the higher producing cows are much more efficient and more profitable.

For example, a 1,200-pound cow producing 12,000 pounds of four per cent milk requires only 30

POINTS TO NEW LOOK IN SOIL CONSERVATION

Radical land-use changes caused by population increases in Pennsylvania are causing a "new look" in soil and water conservation programs, according to Robert Lott, of the Adams County Soil Conservation District.

Lott, who attended the 15th annual conference of district directors at Reading, said that programs designed for agricultural conservation must be adapted to serve a wider variety of land users. Such persons include industries, rural residents, public landowners and suburban community groups with land water problems, he said.

Speakers at the conference of 250 state conservation leaders hammered away at the need for a "marriage" of city and rural interests which they consider necessary to an effective natural resources program.

GODDARD SPEAKS

State Forests and Waters Secretary Maurice K. Goddard outlined the forthcoming Susquehanna River Basin study and urged districts to work with all interests in developing a truly comprehensive program of water management.

Ivan McKeever, state conservationist, U. S. Soil Conservation Service, told the group that past plans for conservation practices are becoming outdated and that soil conservation districts must plan five, 10, 25 and even 50 years ahead.

An even broader proposal was advanced by David G. Unger, executive secretary of the state Soil Conservation Commission. He urged transformation of soil conservation districts into natural resource districts that could help co-ordinate all resource programs at the local level.

DIPLOMATS SAY BERLIN TRUCE TALKS CHILL

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top level U.S.-Soviet talks on Berlin failed to yield any evidence today that a Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting next month could put an end to the Berlin crisis.

President Kennedy spent 2 hours and 15 minutes in discussion with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at the White House Thursday, and Gromyko and Secretary of State Dean Rusk then continued the talks at the State Department for 4 1/2 hours—until after midnight.

A department spokesman said there was no change in the positions of either side in the Berlin dispute—positions which are regarded here as putting the Soviet Union and the Western powers on a collision course over West Berlin's future.

NO NEW PROPOSALS

The spokesman also said the talks yielded "no perceptible progress" toward an accord and that neither side put forward any new proposals.

As he left the White House, Gromyko said he and Kennedy had discussed several important matters, one being Berlin. He did not specify any others. He characterized the talk as useful.

Asked about the prospect of Soviet Premier Khrushchev visiting the United States, Gromyko said, "At this moment I have nothing to say on this subject."

He thus left up in the air the question of Khrushchev's plans. But it is known that the Soviet leader is seriously considering a trip to the United Nations in New York next month and that he would like to talk with Kennedy about Berlin.

Kennedy is understood to have reservations about such a meeting unless there is hope it will result in easing the dispute. However, he has said that if Khrushchev comes to the United States he will see him.

Following the meeting at the State Department Gromyko told reporters that the Soviet position on the German peace treaty problem is the same as has been stated before.

This position is that the Soviet Union intends to make a separate peace treaty with East Germany which would, in its view, give the German Communist regime full sovereignty over Western supply lines to West Berlin.

Kennedy administration leaders say they believe a severe Berlin crisis is in prospect for later this year or possibly early in 1963. This crisis could be brought about by the Soviet Union signing a treaty with East Germany if the East Germans—with Soviet backing—then sought to take full control of the supply lines.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A fall from a go-cart was fatal Friday for Paul Blank, 14, of nearby West Mifflin.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and Democratic National Chairman John Bailey will both campaign for Democratic candidates in Pennsylvania next week, it was announced Friday. Johnson is to appear at a rally in Sharon Thursday. Bailey is to be in Allentown and Levittown Sunday.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richardson Dilworth wound up a long day of campaigning after midnight Friday and again challenged his opponent to appear for a televised debate tonight.

Dilworth, Democratic candidate for governor, apparently wasn't sure whether his Republican opponent, William W. Scranton, would appear.

Scranton has said he has a previous speaking engagement, also in Scranton—where Dilworth has scheduled the debate — and

QUESTIONS READY

At one of four speeches he made Thursday, Dilworth told a ward rally: "Instead of all these lies and rotten smears, let him show up and he'll get the answers he wants and he'll get some questions from me, too."

"I'll ask him about the mine seepage from his old company, the Glen Alden Co."

"I'll ask him about the coal dumps burning on his own property."

"I'll ask him why the Scranton family moved their money out of Scranton and invested it elsewhere."

"I'll ask him why he can't get industry to move into his own home county."

"And I don't think Willie is going to show up, because he can't answer these questions."

Hold Grandfather In Child's Death

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Timothy Warren, 2, of suburban Drexel Hill, was killed Thursday when his grandfather, a North Carolina physician, accidentally backed his car over the child as he was playing in the driveway of his home.

The grandfather, Dr. John Warren, 67, of Salisbury, was held in $1,500 bail by Upper Darby Justice of the Peace Edmund Hannum on a technical charge of manslaughter pending a coroner's inquest.

Abby Dalton

"The Joey Bishop Show"

ABBY DALTON . . . plays Joey Bishop's pretty wife in the new "Joey Bishop Show" Saturday nights on NBC-TV. If Abby looks familiar—you're right—she was the costar of Jackie Cooper's series "Hennesey."

Abby Dalton, who was Jackie Cooper's nurse girl friend and ultimately his wife (in the last episode) of "Hennesey," turns up this season as Joey Bishop's wife on his new show over NBC-TV on Saturday nights. On the new series, "The New Joey Bishop Show," the star plays a television comedian with Abby as his understanding bride and comics Guy Marks and Joe Besser as his second bananas.

"I really loved the role on 'Hennesey,'" Abby admits. "But it's nice to get out of the starched uniform of a navy nurse and into something comfortable like an evening gown or mink coat. And Joey's show is in color, too, and those gowns and clothes I wear . . . are BEAUTIFUL."

The green-eyed blonde reviewed a career that has seen her as a Las Vegas chorus girl, ballet instructor, fashion model, movie actress and one of the most popular television stars to turn up in many a moon.

FASHION DESIGNER

After attending Luther Burbank High School in Los Angeles as well as John Muir High, she studied fashion designing at the famed Chouinard Art Institute, which lists such distinguished alumnae as, Academy Award Winner Edith Head.

"I wanted to be a designer very much," Abby said. "I liked everything about it but the sewing. I could cut patterns and sketch, but the sewing bugged me."

Abby taught ballet for awhile, earning the princely salary of $25 her first month, and modelled at Bullock's fashionable department store in Pasadena.

A photographer friend sent her photo to an RKO casting director who in turn suggested she apply for a job dancing at the Sands

Hotel in Las Vegas.

ONE OF 7 SELECTED

"I went to the audition," Abby said, "and there were 250 beautiful girls there. I decided to chicken out. But I figured I had nothing else to do that day so I decided to stay. I was one of the seven girls selected."

Abby said she took the dancing job to save money to enable her to get to New York where she wanted to become a high fashion model. She really saved her money too.

"In Las Vegas the girls could get a chuck wagon dinner free after the show," she said, "and that's what I lived on. I shared a room with three other girls, and I never once even played a nickel slot machine. I had seven uncashed pay checks when I decided it was time to make a move to New York."

Armed with a briefcase full of references, Abby moved in on Gotham fash and was soon working for some of the best sportswear manufacturers. "But I was so homesick," she recalled. "New York was exciting, but I missed Los Angeles. I missed California. I wanted to see the Pacific Ocean again."

IN SIX MOVIES

As quick as you could say "one plane ticket, please," Abby was again basking under the California sun.

NATIONAL SYMPTOM

Edgar Allen Jones Jr., judge of "Day In Court," commenting about the show: "The popularity of 'Day In Court' is a healthy national symptom. Anything which allows our people a better understanding of our court system assists the cause of freedom and gives us a very strong base from which to fight the war of ideas and words."

Japanese born actor Yoshio Yoda eating chow on the set of "McHale's Navy," series commented: "This American food is good. But trouble is, it stays with you. An hour later you're still not hungry."

Danny Thomas will double as star and director of a November episode of his "Danny Thomas Show." Through flashbacks, Danny plays comedian Danny Williams as he was 10 years ago, and as he is today.

nia sun. A girl friend was studying acting with Jeff Corey and used to "bounce" her lines off Abby, who was soon so interested she was studying with Corey himself.

In two and a half years, Abby played the female lead in six movies and a dozen top television shows. She admits the movies were usually low budget affairs like "Rock Ali Night," "Viking Woman" and "Cole Younger, Gunfighter." "But," she adds, "you have to start somewhere."

Her favorite movie role was in "Stake Out on Dope Street," a picture that cost $35,000 to produce and which was sold to Warner Bros. for $150,000. This movie got excellent reviews, especially from the usually caustic critics of a weekly news magazine. "BANDIT QUEEN"

"My first TV show was a Schlitz Playhouse," Abby said. "I was playing 'Belle Starr,' the bandit queen, as a girl. It was a pilot, but poor old 'Belle' didn't get 'rung' that year by any takers."

Abby said she applied for the role of nurse "Martha Hale" on the "Hennessey" show on the advice of her agent, Jackie Cooper singled her out as "the typical, clean cut American girl" he wanted for the role, and it was hers for three years.

"I know the show could have gone another year," she believes, "but that's show business. It was a wonderful experience for me though. Jackie taught me so much about acting, camera angles, everything. The three years I was on 'Hennessey' I learned more about acting than in seven years of summer stock."

WED JACK SMITH

When "Hennessey" went under, Abby said she wasn't worried about her career. She had married Jack Smith, a Burbank electrical supply wholesaler, and was content to be a housewife for awhile. She was not particularly alarmed that her role as the fresh-faced navy nurse had "typed her in any way."

Abby said she heard that Joey Bishop was looking for a TV wife while she was still in "Hennessey" and since it was not yet known whether or not the navy comedy would survive, Joey was not interested in her for the part.

"Three months later Joey was still looking for the girl and I asked him if I could try out," she said. "I did and it was love at first sight. Joey was so kind and considerate. I'm always nervous when auditioning, and he put me right at ease."

Some producers and stars just give a tryout performer a small portion of the script to read or maybe just one scene. But Abby said Joey let her read the whole script and gave her plenty of time to "digest my lines."

"He gave me a fighting chance and when it was all over he decided I would be 'Mrs. Joey Barnes' on his show," Abby said. "It was a wonderful moment for me."

Abby said that the plots of Joey's new show should make it one of the most successful of the new comedy series of the 1962-63 season. "Joey is really relaxed because he's playing just what he is — a television comedian," she said. "He's not a press agent. He's right in character. And with Joe Besser as the bumbling superintendent of our apartment and Guy Marks as Joey's manager, I just don't see how we can miss."

And with a beautiful blonde — in stunning clothes in living color — named Abby Dalton to round out this cast, "The New Joey Bishop Show" does have a very good chance this season of hitting the top ten ratings and staying there.

LONGER SKIRTS

Jeanne Cagney, fashion commentator on "Queen for a Day," discussing milady's skirts: "Skirts will be longer. They are more comfortable an inch or so below the knee. From a professional standpoint, clothes worn on TV and onstage must allow beauty of movement. You must sit well, stand well and move easily. This you can't do with a skirt that is too short."
